Catholic Women's Council

The mission of the Saint Denis Catholic Women's Council is to share the value of religion with the Catholic women of St. Denis, to further charitable and educational interests, and to assist in parish activities. This wonderful organization was formed in 1918, one hundred years ago! The CWC members are very proud and excited to celebrate our 100th anniversary! Our celebration begins with a special Mass honoring our living and deceased members on Saturday March 17th at 4:00 PM. Following Mass we will host a Pot Luck Supper in Keresey Hall. EVERYONE IN THE ST. DENIS COMMUNITY IS INVITED and encouraged to pray with us at Mass and break bread with us in Keresey Hall.

It is by the grace of God that we are here to celebrate the good works of the many women who have unselfishly supported our parish over the last century. We are a relatively small group, but we are strong in our commitment to our mission.

The sign-up sheet for the Pot Luck Supper is located in the vestibule of the church.
